Dear Mr. Cormack:

I have for acknowledgment your letter of September 14, 1954, addressed to Mr. Lawrence Houston in which you request the completion and forwarding of your Personal Report Form for purposes of listing in the Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory. I am taking this occasion to acknowledge your letter in view of Mr. Houston's protracted absence from the city. Though we are most appreciative of your interest to list all individuals who are known to be lawyers, necessarily the policy of this Agency precludes any such listing.

Again, let me express our appreciation for your interest.

Sincerely,

25X1A9a

Dear Mr. Houston:

As you probably know, in the Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory we undertake to list, without charge or other obligation, all individuals whom we know to be lawyers and regarding whom we have certain basic information. It has always been our aim to list not only practicing lawyers but, also, those who may be retired, in government service, associated with business concerns, educational institutions, etc.

Whereas we know that we now list a majority of the lawyers who are not in private practice, there are some, including you, who are not listed in the current edition of our Directory. We hope to list all of them in our next edition and would, therefore, appreciate it if you would be kind enough to promptly complete and return the enclosed Personal Report Form in the envelope provided for your convenience.

Very truly yours,

MARTINDALE-HUBBELL, INC.
